1 Preface

The Delegations Register is the compiled decisions of Council to the CEO, employees, and other officers, authorising them to act on behalf of Council on specific matters. The power for Council to delegate is contained within the relevant Act.

Delegations are over-ridden by –

- Commonwealth and State legislation and regulations,
- the Local Planning Scheme
- Local Laws
- Council resolutions

Delegations override –

- Council Policy
- Executive Instructions
- Local Government Guidelines – although these are not decisions of Council, close observance is strongly recommended
- administrative directions/instructions

The decisions can be made at any time and may be varied at Council's discretion. Delegation is binding on employees and officers unless discretion is stated. Delegated power is to be considered as Council's instructions.

The Local Government Act requires –

- delegations to be made by an absolute majority of Council
- annual review and resolution
- places restrictions and limitations.

Please bear in mind, that the Local Government Act cannot authorise a delegation made under other legislation, unless that legislation allows. A delegation must be made in accordance with its head of power, or it is invalid.

Within the Delegations Register is a detailed outline of –

- how delegations are to be made
- who they be made to
- the authority by which they are made
- limitations and restrictions etc.

The Delegation Functions, Conditions and Sub-Delegations Permitted are resolved by Council. Sub-Delegations by the CEO within the permissions approved by Council, are at the discretion of the CEO. All procedural or reference information may be amended or updated by the Chief Executive Officer if required.

1.1 Summary

This document records the compiled delegations made by Council under the authority of the Local Government Act 1995 and other legislative instruments as specified.

This register is the formal written record by which a delegation is made and conferred. Therefore, committees, the CEO and officers are provided with this document as their record of delegation/s made to them.

1.1.1 Statutory Context

- Building Act 2011
- Bushfires Act 1954
- Cat Act
- Dog Act 1976
- Food Act 2008
- Health (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1911
- Public Health Act 2016

- Local Government Property Local Law 2005
- Activities on Thoroughfares and Trading in Thoroughfares and Public Places Local Law 2004
- Health Local Laws 2016
- Animals Environment and Nuisance Local Laws 2016

Unless stated otherwise, the Local Government Act 1995 section 5.42 is the fundamental statutory context for Council to make delegations.

Local Government Act 1995 –

5.42. Delegation of some powers and duties to CEO

- (1) A local government may delegate* to the CEO the exercise of any of its powers or the discharge of any of its duties under –

- (a) this Act other than those referred to in section 5.43; or
- (b) the Planning and Development Act 2005 section 214(2), (3) or (5).

Absolute majority required*

(2) A delegation under this section is to be in writing and may be general or as otherwise provided in the instrument of delegation.

Various other legislative instruments empower or require Council to make delegations. The legislative empowerment is stated within each delegation.

Council expects the CEO to apply the provisions of the Local Government Act s.5.44 and other legislation to delegate powers and duties to other employees, including s.5.44(3) powers and duties which have been delegated to the CEO under s5.42.

1.1.2 Corporate Context

The Council is responsible for functions and activities under numerous Acts and other legislation, many of which permit Council to delegate responsibilities and authority to various officers, and to stipulate conditions, standards or methods of control and management.

This Delegations Register has been prepared to complement a range of obligations imposed by legislation including local laws, and various document adopted by Council.

The order of priority for compliance is –

1. Federal and State legislation and regulations.
2. The Local Planning Scheme.
3. A specific resolution of Council.
4. Delegations Register – being specific authorisations resolved by Council and having a statutory context under the Local Government Act.
5. Local Planning Policy – as it is made under the authority of the Local Planning Scheme, by resolution of Council.
6. Council Policy – being instructions received by Council on how particular matters are to be dealt with.
7. Executive Instruction – standing instructions or procedures issued by the CEO.
8. Administrative directions or instructions.

Although not decisions of Council, and therefore not a requirement of staff, consideration should be given to the following as being best practice –

- DLGCS Guidelines
- WALGA Councillors Policy Manual, Practice Notes etc.

Unless specifically resolved that a delegation is to be included in the Delegations Register, it is considered that it is for a specific matter and is not a general or on-going Delegation.

There are some Delegations that have specific legislative provision, and these are noted in the individual Delegation.

1.1.3 Definitions

The LG Act has not defined the term “delegation” or “delegated power”, However:

s.5.16 refers to “... the exercise of any of its powers and duties...”

s.5.42 refers to “... the exercise of any of its powers or the discharge of any of its duties...”

The following terms used in this apply insofar as they are consistent with enabling legislation.

Authority means the permission or requirement for Council, a Committee, or a person to act in accordance with:

- the Local Government Act, Regulation, or other legislation;
- a delegation made by Council;
- a policy made by Council; or
- a specific decision by Council; or
- Standard procedural direction given or authorised by the CEO.

Delegation means the authority for a Committee, the CEO or other person to exercise a power, or discharge a duty, as conferred by absolute majority decision of council under the provisions of the relevant legislation.

Council Policy is the standing instruction resolved by Council as to how a particular matter is to be implemented.

Executive Instruction means the requirement for a staff member to act in accordance with a direction given by the CEO.

Planning Policy is established under the Planning & Development Act 2005, and the local planning scheme, and has mandatory procedures to adopt, amend or revoke.

1.1.4 Guidelines No.17 – Delegations (Department of Local Government)

The Department of Local Government and Communities has published Guidelines for the formation of Delegations.

The Guidelines outline the concept of “delegation” and “acting through” in parts 3 and 4 in paragraph 13 where it is stated –

“... the key difference between a delegation and “acting through” is that a delegate exercises the delegated decision-making function is his or her own right. The principal issue is that where a person has no discretion in carrying out a function, then that function may be undertaken through the “acting through” concept. Alternatively, where the decision allows for discretion on the part of the decision maker, then that function needs to be delegated for another person to have that authority.”

In effect, “acting through” is an action that could reasonably be expected to be carried out as the result of a decision by Council (e.g. advertising of a tender), or as a function reasonably expected of the position that a person holds.

Not all matters which will be recorded in Policy are “acting through” matters. Similarly, not all “acting through” matters will be listed. Policy describes how that action, or some other action is to be carried out.

1.1.5 Making, Amending & Revoking Delegations

Delegations from Council may be made, amended, or revoked at any time by an absolute majority of Council. Where permitted by Council in the delegation, the CEO may authorise a secondary delegation at any time.

Delegations from the CEO to other employees are at the discretion of the CEO and do not require a Council resolution. The CEO can delegate a power or duty, the exercise or discharge of which has been delegated by a local government to the CEO, subject to any conditions imposed by the local government on its delegation to the CEO (s.5.44 (3)).

It is a requirement that the use of all delegated authority is recorded but it is not a requirement to report the use of delegated authority to Council.

Council may impose limitations on secondary delegation, or the functions delegated as they see fit, The CEO is not obligated to delegate the whole or any delegation authorised by Council but may choose not to or place further limitations on the delegation. However, unless specifically resolved that the authority is to be included in the Delegations Register, the authority to act is for a specific matter, and is not a general or on-going delegation.

1.1.6 Use of Delegations

Delegations are made to assist with the smooth operation of the organisations and allow appropriate levels of authority to determine a wide range of matters.

There is no requirement for any authorised person to use a delegation. It is at the person's discretion whether or not to exercise a delegated authority, and they may refer the matter to a higher level at any time, should it appear in their judgement to be the best option.

1.1.7 Record of Use of Delegations

The Act requires that the use of each delegation is recorded but does not require that the use is reported to Council, nor does it specify recording or listing the use in a particular format. Such requirements would result in an unwieldy volume of work that is unproductive.

However, in some instances, the use of the delegation is of sufficient importance that Council should be advised so as to be aware of the impact of the decision made.

In order to reduce the unnecessary paperwork burden as far as possible, the formal record of use of a delegation is the document that is produced in the normal course of administration of the matter, This document may be a form approving or refusing an application, a letter, batch approval for payment of creditors, file note, email or similar.

All these satisfy the requirements of the State Records Office.

1.1.8 Review of The Delegations

A delegation has effect for the period of time specified in the delegation or indefinitely if no period has been specified.

It is a requirement under the Local Government Act s.5.18 and s.5.46 (1) that all delegations made under the authority of the Act be reviewed by the delegator at least once in each financial year.

Any decision to amend or revoke a delegation from Council is to be by an absolute majority s.5.45(1)(b).

Review of the delegations from the Council to Committees and the CEO will be carried out before the end of each financial year and preferably in conjunction with the annual review of Council policies.

The CEO will review delegations to staff as required on changeover of staff or change of staff functions and will review all delegations at least once in the financial year in accordance with the legislation.

1.1.9 Primary Delegation

The primary delegation recipient includes the person acting in that position should the named recipient be absent from duty. This provision does not apply where the named person is on duty, but not present at the office at the time.

1.1.10 Secondary Delegation By CEO

The CEO is expected and encouraged to further delegate to appropriate officers, subject to the limitations imposed by the Local Government Act, other enabling legislation, or the conditions of the delegation made by Council to CEO. This should be done in accordance with specific consideration of:

s.5.43 – limitations on delegations to CEO

s.5.44 (1) – does not permit the CEO to delegate the capacity to further delegate, and further stipulates that the delegation may only be to employees (no such stipulation is made for delegations under other legislation)

s.5.46 – requires the CEO to review sub-delegations to other employees at least annually

The delegation by the CEO is to be:

- By signed document to the person; and
- A copy is to be retained by them.
